Tony is married to Lucille and they have four children. He has been a minister in North London, and Manchester for many years. He was Rector of Holy Trinity, on the edge of Moss Side for 15 years. During this he was the chaplain for Manchester City Football Club, Greater Manchester Police. He is passionate about mission and church growth, and will inspire us as we seek to spread the word to the world.

THE SPEAKERS

Pete joined the staff team of Christians in Sport in 2004 having worked in London as a Management Consultant and an Economics Teacher. Pete went to Oxford University where he got three Blues; two for rugby union and one for rugby league. After a brief period playing professionally Pete stopped playing due to a back injury. However, he still regularly plays rugby sevens and squash.
